From:	Edward Temko <temkon@me.com>
To:	Ehud Barak <ehbarak1@gmail.com>
CC:
Date:	Mon, 4/20/2015 1:28:44 AM
Subject:	Re: from ned

Very helpful. Will have to rewrite the chapter I've just finished a bit, but after the changes, will send it to you.
Best
Ned

> On 19 Apr 2015, at 21:51, Ehud Barak wrote:
>
> Hi Ned
> My summer in the Weizman Institute was the summer of 67. We planned it months before the war and were accepted after certain process but it eventually happened Immediately after the war. Just after I've ended my second year (out of three) for my B.Sc.
> During this summer our flagship was sunk and war of attrition started. At the end of this summer I've made a life shaping choice and decided to come back to service. It also solved for me a budget issue because it enabled me to be fully paid by IDF salary in exchange for committing myself for three years of service.
>
> I've told you that I had the conversation with Tubul during same summer.
> But thinking of it again I was wrong.
> It's true we've used Egyptian (Russian made) vehicles. But these were 1956 veteran vehicles. Not 1967.
> The event happened in summer of 1963. We had a training week in the dunes of Ze'elim.
> Tubul was already a student after one year in Technion. And I've considered going to Technion or Hebrew Univ. in two years time. (I had no matriculation and had to complete quite a lot).
> The question I've asked was "where would you prefer to find yourself in 10yrs.
> A commander of The Unit or a Post Doctorate in Electronics."
> I was surprised by his immediate unequivocal answer.
> I've added " there are dozens of Post Docs and only one commander of The Unit". It clearly didn't impress him.
> Hope it's helpful
> Best
> EB
>
>
> Sent from my iPhone
>
>> On Apr 19, 2015, at 15:48, Edward Temko wrote:
>>
>> Hi. Can you clarify when your meeting on the dunes near Tzehilim with Tubul took place? In one >> interview, it sounds as if it was late summer 1967, not long after the war. In another, it sounds as >> if it was in 1968.
>> Also, which summer did you go to the Weizmann Institute?
>> Thanks very much.
>> Best wishes
>> Ned
>>